

Spirit. The whole picture of our life will not be revealed to us. We may not be able to see where our life begins or ends, just like the wind....One step at a time in faith, that's life in the Spirit. When you are at crossroads and don't know which step to take next, pay attention and the Spirit will whisper "This is the way...walk in it."